THE AFRICAN INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW NETWORK PRESENTS WORKSHOP FOR EARLY CAREER CONFERENCE PRESENTERS

- Are you an early career scholar who researches in International Economic Law, particularly from the African context?
- Have you submitted an abstract to the African International Economic Law Network's 6th Biennial Conference and are currently working on your conference paper?
- Would you like direction on how to develop your paper and how to present it at the conference?
- Do you want general tips on having an effective conference attendance, both from the presentation aspect as well as networking?

If so, then this workshop is for YOU. Hear from our speakers on how to prepare for your conference presentation; how to deliver the paper effectively; and how to maximise on the networking opportunities. Please bring your work in progress to get feedback in intimate working groups.
